Meeting Sunday!!!!

Leroy Butler, the inventor of the Lambeau Leap, will be the guest and featured speaker.

AND - We'll be having lots of great giveaways!

AND - Our friends from Advanced Physical Therapy will be there before the meeting if you want talk about a nagging injury.

The meeting starts at 4pm on Sunday, Dec 18th at Harper Hall on the University of Lawrence campus.

Harper Hall is the music/drama building right next to the Cathedral. You will recognize the building by the double glass atrium entrances.

Parking may be tough to find since there is also an event in the cathedral that afternoon.

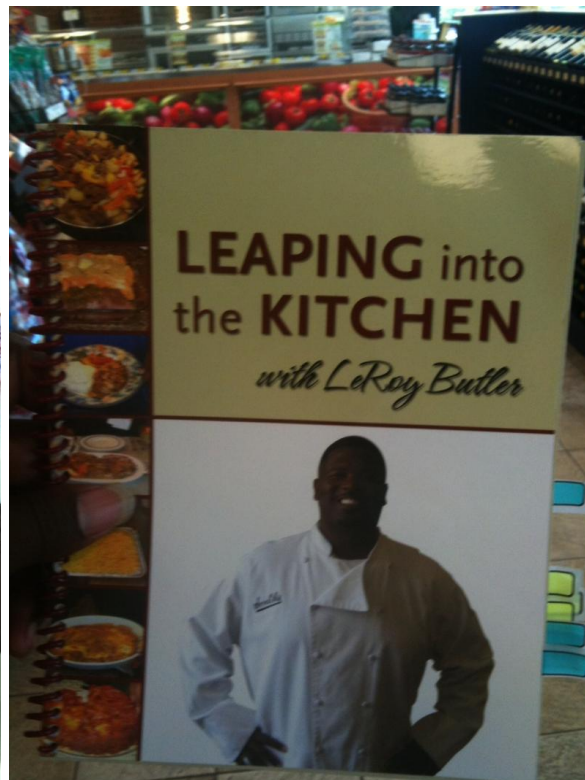

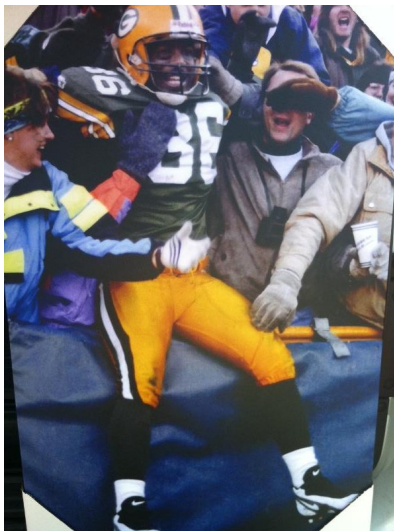

We were informed that since school is not in session we CAN park in any lot on campus. There is also street parking. The closest streets are Washington, Park and Drew. There are a few churches with lots in the Drew/Washington area. The YMCA lot is also only a few blocks away so not a bad idea for Y members to park there for free. Otherwise any street that has legal street parking in the area is fine.

Come early to find parking, talk to the physical therapists, and get your LeRoy Butler merchandise so he can autograph it after the meeting.

any questions contact Amy Henning
at: trifoxamy@gmail.com

Leroy's cookbooks are $25,
the book about his life $25,
plaques $45,
footballs (regulation or youth) $45,
8x10 photos $25.
Cash or checks to Leroy Butler Foundation.

Happy Training in the off-season!

Fox Valley Polar Plunge

Once again we have a Tri Fox Team set up to do the Fox Valley Polar Plunge. This event takes place on Feb 18.

Last year we had 7 Tri Foxes raise $1300 for Special Olympics. Let's try to do even better this time!

Visit the Fox Valley Polar Plunge website for more information or look for additional information about the plunge on the Fox Tri Club Facebook page.
